Description

Superb English dresser from the beginning of the 18th century in oak

Very nice model with very beautiful molded doors. We can find a symmetry in the two doors.

This indicates that it is from the beginning of the 18th century.

The bottom of the dresser is made up of two doors and 4 drawers in its center. On top of the dresser a nice rack with three shelves and well shaped ends original Entrances of good quality

Very beautiful patina and in superb condition
