Description

This painting from the beginning of the 18th century has a very strong personality due to the agility of the brush and the deliberately ordered and systematic treatment of the waves which also brings a certain naïveté.

The rough sea, very present balances with the sky with changing colors.

Three fishermen in a small and fragile boat, fish in a dangerous sea and give an epic touch to this scene which takes place at the mouth of a fictitious port with its constructions, towers and chapel.

Very good state. Old re-covering.

Does not have a frame.

Dimensions: H 58 cm / L 70 cm
