

Great Religious Khandjar Iraq

370 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 54 cm

Description

Great ritual Khanjar, with a blade decorated with religious inscriptions enhanced with gold.

BLADE: steel, double-edged, sharp. Perhaps made so for use it during the sacrifice of the sheep? Blade length 36 cm

HILT : Dark wood, with turquoise, coral, and lapis lazuli inlays.

SCABBARD : this is the original sheath made of sewn leather .

This curious dagger is very unusual. The style of work, the sharp blade and the use of semi-precious stones seems to be a native work, probably for ritual use, and not a bazaar piece made for export.

The shape of the hilt is very similar to traditional Iraqi khandjars.
