Description

A great piece of fantasy furniture - a large throne chair made of original bones from the male cattle (Bos taurus). All parts are made of real ox bones sticked together with iron rods. On top of the backrest are underjaw bones. The chair is manufactured ca. 1930.

This item contains parts of animal origin, which belong to non-threatened and non-endangered animals and which comply with US Fish & Wildlife regulations. They are not listed in Appendices I and II of CITES. Our international shipments respect the laws of all countries.

For purchases in Europe, tax rates vary. Please contact us to find out what is in your case. We are able to ship our products worldwide.
