painter and decorator in his own workshop. The two men meet after the war and create their own company "Your House" where each has a specific role: Guillerme creates, Chambron takes care of the commercial part and Emile Dariosecq, cabinetmaker, manufactures the furniture.

Success was rapid and they created a wide variety of inexpensive furniture with the use of materials and techniques characteristic of the house such as waxed oak, a light shade of wood or a dark shade obtained through iron oxide. The armchairs and sofas are made on the same model with worked backs, waxed wood and a thick cushion for the seat. In the 1970s, the company was taken over by Chambron's son who subsequently produced his own creations.
