Description

Pretty and charming romantic pen and ink wash drawing depicting the picking of cherries by a young couple in love.

Beyond the attractive character, the particularity of this drawing lies in the fact that it must have been made by one of the two young people represented; it is annotated with a legend below the motif, but it is especially carried out on the reverse of a handwritten letter written in Dutch which seems to be a love letter.

This letter is dated 1849 preceded by the name of a month or the name of the artist. Written in Dutch, I didn't take the time to try to translate it. In conclusion, here is a truly unique drawing that certainly tells a great story.
