

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Edmond Suau (1871-1929) Une Académie, Standing Man, Oil On Canvas Signed

1 830 EUR

Signature : Edmond Suau (1871-1929)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 70

Height : 88

Description

Edmond Suau (1871-1929)

Une Académie, Standing man,

oil on canvas

signed lower left

88 x 70 cm

In quite good condition, some damages - small lacks of painting - in the lower part, a small hole in the upper left part and some tiny damages, please have a look at the photographs

Edmond Eugène Suau was a french painter, he was born on 4 june 1871 in Mulhouse and died in october 1929 in Paris. He was the pupil of Benjamin Constant, Jules Lefebvre and Tony Robert-Fleury. He exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français from 1897 onward, he was awarded different medals. Artworks by his hand are held by the Fine Arts Museums of Amiens,

Dealer

Remi Fremiot

Old Masters paintings and drawings

Mobile : 0676497593

Metro Poissonnière

Paris 75010

Narbonne and Perpignan

Literature : Benezit , T13 p 342