Description

Superb divisionist composition with Fauve tendency representing cliffs at sunrise, circa 1910/1915 unsigned. Unframed format 31x42cm
This is indeed a magnificent Divisionist composition representing a cliff at sunrise, the artist applies a very divided touch that he masters to perfection and he uses a palette of great richness with tones of ocher, yellow, green, blue, in short, a multitude of colors. This work is unfortunately not signed, or so I missed it, but it is obviously worthy of a very great painter. We immediately think of Henri Person, indeed the touch and the palette are extremely similar to dig, in any case it is obvious that he is a very great painter. Panel in perfect condition, delivered without frame. Guaranteed period early 20th century
