

Pair Of Pointillist Oils, Studies Of The Peasant World

3 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bel état

Width : 58

Height : 28.5

Description

Charming oils on cardboard, painted in a pointillist way, paying homage to the peasant world.

Pointillism is an artistic movement of painting and a pictorial technique that uses small areas of juxtaposed color rather than mixtures of colored pastes.

We think about the form of these works, that these boxes are studies for larger paintings, surely to put above doors or windows, as it exists in town halls or city hotels.
