

"the Banjo" Signed Emile-coriolan Guillemmin, French Sculptor, 1841-1907.

1 900 EUR

Signature : Emile- Coriolan Guillemmin, 1841-1907

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Length : 34 cm

Height : 41 cm

Description

Sculpture representing the "banjo" player in painted metal by the French sculptor Emile-Coriolan Guillemmin, signed on the left. In perfect condition. Private collection. Beginning of the 20th century. Dimensions: h. 41 cm x l. 34 cm. Born October 16, 1841 in Paris, Emile-Corilan Guillemmin studied with his father, Emile Marie Auguste Guillemmin, and with the sculptor Jules Salmson before making his debut at the Salon in 1870. He became known as a sculptor of busts, statues and groups . He received an honorable mention in 1897. Emile-Coriolan Guillemmin died in Paris on December 26, 1907.

Dealer

DIDASCALIES AIX-EN-PROVENCE

French Furniture 18th cent.

Tel : 0660814910

Mobile : 0660814910

18, rue Fernand Dol

Aix-en-Provence 13100