Description

These two beautiful Regency armchairs are in perfect condition and have old tapestries.

Delicately curved, sculpted on the armrests and the belt, they will seduce you!

The Regency style has the rigor of Louis XIV armchairs and the lyricism of Louis XV. It is the appearance of the curve.
The curved line is imposed slowly, but inexorably. Another innovation characterizes the Régence seats: the frame of the seat becomes visible: first the belt (which is no longer hidden by a fringe) then the backrest.

This innovation improves comfort. The backrest of the armchairs is lowered noticeably. The flat,
