Description

The sculpture that I present comes from the Congo more particularly from Ethnia TEKE it measures 66cm high, 16cm wide and 15cm deep. It has a beautiful shiny patina of use in places especially on the handle which demonstrates a strong handling. On the other hand I do not know if it is a scepter, Rattle or reliquary. A magic charge is on the belly which gives it a protuberance ending with a shell. A red fabric surrounds part of the handle, two holes for the eyes and scarifications on the chest, the cheeks and the hair. Beautiful collector's item and I am the taker of all information on this object. Neat and free shipping for the whole world.
