Description

Description:

Chiseled and gilded bronze, blown and cut crystal.

This large centerpiece is designed in the antique style. The tripod base consists of trapezophorums and foliage. The crystal top is surrounded by a serrated frieze of palm leaves. The tray and the crystal cone are carved with bouquets and garlands, the glassmaker's work is refined. Chains are suspended from the amount of the flower glass and the base.

It is interesting to note that the chains on antique objects are an aesthetic resurgence of utilitarian use in the original era. Indeed, in antiquity, certain models of oil lamps were made to be either suspended or placed on a base, and in this
