Description

19th century mahogany cylinder desk fully restored. This one is in flamed cuba mahogany topped with a turquoise blue marble. The locks with triangles and keys are original. It opens with a quarter cylinder and discovers a sliding writing desk. Two side zippers covered in leather. Rare piece of furniture in its quality of cabinetry and its state of conservation. We carried out a varnish with an old-fashioned buffer as well as a change of the leathers struck with gilded iron.
