

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Germain-maximilien Durand, Pair Of Veneer Corner Consoles In Rosewood Circa 1880, Ls46061951

5 300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état.

Material : Painted wood

Width : 51

Height : 99

Depth : 40

Description

Germain-Maximilien Durand, stamp.

Pair of rosewood-veneered corner consoles, stamped under the molded Aleppo breccia marble. Veneer in curling wood, rosewood and violet wood. Curved feet joined by two crotch shelves. Gilt bronze trim adorned with stylized acanthus leaves.

Work realized circa 1880.

Dimensions : H 99 x W 51 x D 40 cm

Reference : LS46061951

Germain-Maximilien Durand (1839-1820) is a 19th century Parisian cabinetmaker. He

Dealer

Jean Luc Ferrand Antiquités

Antique Dealer, Paris Flea Market, Marche Biron.

Tel : 0608784337

Fax : Devis de transport sur demande en fonction de la destination.

85 Rue des Rosiers, Marché Biron, stand 39

Saint-Ouen 93400

participated in the Universal Exhibition of 1889 during which he won a silver medal. He mainly produced copies of 18th century furniture.