Description

Beautiful and large study representing Sappho, his lyre broken at his feet, on the edge of the precipice under a disturbing stormy sky, worthy of the work of the greatest Symbolist painters. Sumptuous, very contrasting colors enliven this painting with its rich palette. Our work, unsigned, is highlighted by a beautiful wooden frame of the time. Accustomed to mythological themes, Rosset-Granger delivers here a work of great quality depicting the myth of the poet Sappho who lived in the 7th and 6th centuries BC on the island of Lesbos in Greece. Legend has it that she threw herself into the sea from the island of Lefkada, in pursuit of a young man, Phaon, out of love for him. Like our artist, this scene of the leap of Lefkada was represented during the XIXth century by a good number of painters. Very good state. On its original canvas. Dimensions of this large format: Height: 132 cm and 145 cm with frame width: 82 cm and 96 cm with frame I will not present Rosset-Granger more except to remind that he was a pupil of Cabanel and rubbed shoulders with the greatest artists of his time such as Edgar Degas. Obviously, it is listed in Bénézit. Numerous exhibitions both in the provinces and abroad and participation in numerous artistic fairs, in particular, from 1878 to 1889 at the salon of the Société des Artistes Français. Do not hesitate to consult the very complete instructions (which I do not want to paraphrase) on the artist by internet "rossetgranger.wordpress.com". Many other objects to discover in my stand at the antique fairs in which I participate. Follow my gallery to be informed of news and to know the dates of the next Trade Shows ... Any questions? I remain at your disposal. Do not hesitate to call me or send me a message. I will answer you with great pleasure.
