Description

Very beautiful transitional mahogany chest of drawers from the Maison Mercier in Paris. The transition style appears around 1750 with straighter and more sober lines to end around 1770. Our chest of drawers is of course made from the end of the 19th century according to a model of the time. It opens with three broken drawers on the first row and two drawers without crosspieces under this one. Maison Mercier is renowned for its quality of manufacture. DIMENSIONS: 1.18MX 0.48M AND 0.89M IN HEIGHT
