Description

Eagle head in cut crystal signed R. Lalique France. It is in good condition but has a small chip on the top of the head.

It was in 1925 that René Lalique produced his radiator caps to adorn the grilles of prestigious vehicles of the Roaring Twenties. Symbol of luxury and prestige, 30 famous mascots have seen the light of day. The eagle head mascot is a collector's item, which is no longer manufactured by the Lalique manufacture.
