

A Chinese Famille Rose "twin Peacock" Dish. Qianlong Period.

1 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Un fel sur l'aile

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 28 cm

Description

Enamelled in a richfamille rosepalette with a peacock and a peahen standing on a grassy hillock beside blue weathered rocks growing with large pink peony, smaller flowers in gilt and colors growing alongside, all within a series of iron-red borders trailing similar blooms and interrupted by dark grey ground lappets edged in green leafy scrollwork.

China

Qianlong period (1736-1795)

Diam : 28 cm

For a large dinner service (sold 127.000 USD), see Christie's NYC, 23 january 2001, lot 82.

Dealer

Galerie Porcelaine des Compagnie des Indes
Chinese Export Porcelain

Tel : 06 26 57 59 87

170 avenue Parmentier

Paris 75010

For a tureen (sold 12.500 USD), see Christie's
NYC, Chinese Export Art, 27 january 2014, lot 376.