Description

A very fine job for this stoneware dish enamelled with oval patterns on a slightly celadon cracked cream background near the edge. Slightly raised, it rests on a small heel. A small hole has been made on either side of the heel to allow it to hang. Beautiful nuanced colors. It dates from the 1st half of the 20th century, from the time when the Printemps department stores in Paris had started in 1912 to have sets of furniture and works of art produced by artists / craft workshops in order to present them to a customers eager for modernity; The Spring Art Workshop was born. Many areas of the decorative arts are represented: furniture, glassware, ceramics, fabrics and rugs, tableware, lighting etc ... Printemps has also sought to widely distribute this production by participating in the main Trade Shows of decorative arts, in
