Panoramic Engraving View : Horse Race At Champ De Mars In Paris

2 200 EUR

Signature : Bance & Schroth

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon

Material : Paper

Width : 80 cm

Height : 63 cm

Description

In the foreground, many people are walking on the Chaillot hill, no doubt inhabitants of the nearby villages of Passy or Auteuil for example.Rare view of the 7th arrondissement of Paris from the Right Bank in front of the Champ de Mars which is occupied by a horse race and view of the Gros-Caillou district;Champ de Mars was the parisian horse race track until the creation of the Hippodrome of Longchamp in the 1850'.In the foreground, this view is animated by characters scattered on the hill of Passy who observe the spectacle of the Left Bank; there is a little traffic on the Seine bank and on the pont d'Iéna which are equipped with their lantern lighting;inscription at the bottom :In Paris at Bance & Schroth, rue du Mail, 5Color engraving, Paris around 1840.View dimensions: 51 x 72

Dealer

Laurent Oïffer-Bomsel

Fine objects and Collector's objects...

Mobile : +33 6 80 15 84 82

22 rue de Beaune

Paris 75007

cmInner frame: 57 x 74 cm