Description

Fireback dating from the beginning of the 18th century with the arms of the Le Féron family which could be attributed to several members of this family, including: - Jerome II Le Féron d'Orville (1641-1727), Lord of Orville and Louvres -en-Parisis, adviser then sub-dean (1727) at the Parliament of Paris. - Nicolas Le Féron d'Orville (1681-1742), Lord of Louvres-en-Parisis, Savigny and Orville honorary president of the Parliament of Paris (1732). The origins of the Le Féron family date back to the 13th century, with Bernard Le Féron, a squire from Alsace who put himself at the service of King Philippe II Augustus (1165-1223), seventh king of the Capetian dynasty. He commanded a company of arms in Bouvines, knighted in 1214, he settled shortly after in Compiègne. Blazon:
