18th Century Princely House Ladle

180 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Length : 43 cm environ

Description

Beautiful small brass ladle, probably from the castle office, late 18th century-early 19th century spoon, half-sphere, outer diameter: 7.5 cm. External depth approximately: 1.5 cm maximum, two minimal oxidations in the bottom. Spatula carved six times with a coat of arms surmounted by a princely crown with in its center the initials of the master copper maker: EH? The hallmark of the artisan brass maker repeated on the flat of the handle can be guessed. End of the tail worked with its hanging hook. Delivery: 10 EUR for metropolitan France.
