Description

Large corner with curved front,
made in France in the second half of the 1800s.
The cabinet, in mahogany wood,
it has two curved doors that give access to a large compartment divided in the center by a shelf.

Also ideal as a corner TV stand.

The interiors are made of oak and polished with shellac.

The top has a small square hole in the corner,
probably used for the passage of cables.

The feet rest on two wheels that make it easy to move.

Functional lock with key.

Restored and polished with shellac with a wax finish
