Visit Or Out Of Ball Jacques Doucet Haute Couture Circa 1900

1 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Circa 1890/1900 Paris Visit or outing from the Ball of the famous couturier Jacques Doucet who had as assistant Paul Poiret and Madeleine Vionnet. Changing taffeta navy, green and purple. Application of black plush velvet laces forming arabesques and spirals. Wide batwing sleeves and fuchsia pink silk crepe lining embellished with older lace. Large pleated work in the back finished with long fringes of plush velvet. Front closure with hooks concealed under two black ribbon rosettes. Black label, white graphics. Weakness and repair at the level of the lining at the collar and shoulders. Otherwise very good condition. Equivalent size 38 France. In the wake of competition with Maison Worth, Jacques Doucet dressed the aristocracy and the elegant of the Parisian artistic world. Jacques Doucet was a

Dealer

Villa Rosemaine
costumes et textiles anciens
Tel : 06 32 88 38 10

436 route de Plaisance
Toulon 83200

connoisseur and art collector whose collection was dispersed in Paris in the 2000s. The Angladon Foundation in Avignon now has its archives as a designer. A must in the history of French Haute Couture!