Description

This charcoal was made in 1951 by Yonosuke Hoshizaki, Japanese painter (1905-1994). This view of the Alexandre III bridge in Paris is full of detail, it is precise and has depth. Note spots in the design on the middle of the left side, and the paper is curled, however it remains in more than acceptable condition. The frame is made of wood and also a little damaged. Sold uncleaned as is. For the state thank you for detailing the photos. Do not hesitate to zoom. Photos are an integral part of the description. Dimensions: Frame Height: 40.7 cm Width: 56 cm Thickness: 2 cm Drawing Height: 38.5 cm Width: 54 cm A400
