Description

Attractive Louis XVI style chandelier from 1900. "Quiver" model from which three sconces leave supporting sandblasted and cut crystal glassware. These arms are connected to the bail shield by rows of pearls. The central shaft surrounded by a vine branch connects the bail shield to the quiver by nestling in the feathers of the arrows. Vine patterns on and under the sconces. Very good condition. Wiring redone. Large choice of lighting on our site www.antiquites-opio.fr
