Description

end of the 18th century for the lampas at the end of the 19th century for the assembly Japan Astonishing Kimono coat of a Japanese dignitary or a Samurai, Edo period, in lampas lined with wool with the coat of arms of Polonia - Tokugawa dating from the end of the 19th century. Beautiful 18th century lamé lampas predominantly rusty cream and green, with silver thread weft. Kimono cut with slit at the back, lined with a green woolen cloth with a black velvet coat of arms highlighted with golden threads embroidered in chain stitch. Large raised collar and fastening tabs in trimmings, one of which is buttoned. Gold lamé bias piping around the edge of the coat. Lampas slightly threadbare and patina in places, but good overall structure. No holes or stains. Very good condition of color
