Description

Description:

Or moulu chiseled bronze and cannon patina, white marble.

This pair of candelabras is designed to represent two entwined putti carrying a large bouquet of flowers emerging from a cornucopia. The set is carried by a rare base in a chest. This base has four broad feet, a marble sole covered with bronze cartridges and rosettes and a bronze block with sharp angles. This block is perforated to reveal slabs of mat white marble (Carrara) and to vibrate the brilliance of the gilding, it is placed on a sort of mold in knotted links, and dressed on its four sides with rosettes with large overhanging buttons. also standing out against the marble. The two putti are on a naturalistic terrace and carry
