Description

Very largely inspired by the Palais du Louvres and the Seine, the artist gives us here an imaginary Parisian landscape curiously featuring a two-mast with full sails retracted and boats on the water in front of the monument. All under a cloudy sky with a few blue gaps, typical of the color of the Parisian sky. By the presence of the boats, this watercolor painted on pencil lines and heightened with gouache invites us to travel. You will admire in particular, these magnificent colors illustrated by the reflections of the water and the infinite shades of green expertly declined. Dimensions: 74.5 cm x 54 cm framed 53 cm x 39 cm in sight The artist has made landscapes his primary specialty, in oil, watercolor, gouache or even charcoal. Thanks to his remarkable gifts for drawing, his stubbornness as well as the support of the mayor of his town, the artist moved to Paris at the age of eighteen, brilliantly succeeded in Fine Arts and became a decorator, professor of recognized drawing and painter. Throughout his existence, he obtained numerous awards and exhibited in the main French artistic fairs (French artists, Indépendants, Automne ...). It is referenced in Bénézit. Our work, put under glass, is mounted in an old gilded wood rod which puts it very well. Signed with the artist's stamp at the bottom both on the left and on the right. Good condition, as you see it ... Many other objects to discover in my stand at the antique fairs in which I participate. Follow my gallery to be informed of news and to know the dates of the next Trade Shows ... Any questions? I remain at your disposal. Do not hesitate to call me or send me a message. I will answer you with great pleasure.
