Description

18th and 19th century devotional object:
Beautiful work of folk art in carved wood serving as a holy water font, rosary holder and reliquary.

This is a composition full of charm, made at the end of the 19th century with an element of a reliquary monstrance from the 18th century.
The wooden panel (walnut) is finely carved in the mass with floral decoration and Mary's heart, it is signed: Gélamur.

The top of the monstrance is from the 18th century in silvered bronze with its glasses.
The shell is a holy water font that acts as a ... holy water font.

This object is in good general condition, two
