Description

Caned armchair in carved beech, backrest decorated with shells, animated armrests with leafy windings, belt decorated with shells and foliage, resting on four curved legs joined by an X-shaped spacer, from the 18th century Regency period. This chair is in good condition, in its own juice. It will be necessary to redo a cake for the seat. A note: small accident and lack of wood under the X spacer (see red arrow), some small cracks, wormholes and wear of time on the wood, take a good look at the photos.
