Description

Oil on canvas titled on the back "Corps décor", signed Virginet in the decor. Surrealist painting depicting an ephebe, shirtless and bulging, facing the sun. The flight of the seagull symbolizing freedom, eternal free time and the life which presents no concern. It is the medicine of "self-realization", the path of adaptation of welcome, impertinence and contentment. It is going beyond the "me" to rise to the "self". DELF gold leaf frame, bronze patina. Dimensions of the canvas 4x65 cm. Total dimensions, with frame, 74x85 cm.
