Paire Of Fauteuils

5 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Rattan

Diameter : 120

Height : 65

Description

Paire of fauteuils in rattan. Rotary seat to put on the stool.

Quilted cushions, blue in color, entirely made by our workshops with a fabric from the publisher Camengo.

Work realized in the 1970s.

Dimensions : H 65 x D 120 cm

Great design classic of the 1950s and popularized in the 1970s, a Papasan armchair, otherwise known as a "bowl armchair" or "moon armchair" is a type of armchair in the shape of a bowl, with an adjustable angle. The bowl sits in a vertical frame traditionally made of rattan, but also

Dealer

Jean Luc Ferrand Antiquités
Antique Dealer, Paris Flea Market, Marche Biron.
Tel : 0608784337
Fax : Devis de transport sur demande en fonction de la destination.

85 Rue des Rosiers, Marché Biron, stand 39
Saint-Ouen 93400

sometimes made of wicker or sturdy wood. The chair cushion is usually thick velor filled with cotton down similar to that of a futon. For traditional papasans, the pillow can be removed and used outside of its sturdy frame. The papasan chair gained popularity in the West when American servicemen of World War II brought them back from the Far East, where they had been used especially in Indonesia, Thailand, the Philippines and Japan for centuries.