PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

G. Pugi (1850-1915) Life Size Marble

3 500 EUR

Signature : Guglielmo Pugi (1850-1915)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Exceptional life-size sculpture in Carrara marble finely carved in direct carving from the late 19th century signed on the back PUGI (Guglielmo Pugi 1850-1915) romantic composition called maternity featuring a young woman in bust cuddling her child embraced around of it, the whole resting on an alabaster pedestal. Guglielmo Pugi is a Florentine sculptor author of the famous bust of King Umberto I erected in the town square of Fiesole, from 1870 he runs a workshop providing a significant foreign demand. His works are notably preserved in the historical museum of the city of Voltera in Italy. Good general condition, no breakage, cracks or restoration. Dimensions: 60 cm high X 40 cm wide X 24 cm deep / Weight: 35 Kg. No delivery, to be collected on site Thank you for your

Dealer

Galerie Tramway
marchand d'art, gestion du patrimoine
Mobile : 06.65.52.05.40

D-751
Amboise 37400

understanding