Description

Funny surrealist painting representing a very uncluttered landscape simply animated by a chair and feminine accessories (hat, scarf, pearl necklace). In the background, a row of trees forms a perspective towards the horizon, all against a background in shades of green. Our painting on canvas is signed lower right by the artist François Mielvaque and dated 1976. François Mielvaque born in 1934, he studied at the fine arts in Toulouse. He worked in 1955 in the studio of painter-ceramicist and tapestry designer Jean Lurcat (1892-1966). Surrealist painter belonging to the group of painters of poetic reality. Our painting is sold unframed. Shipping and protection costs 20 euros in metropolitan France, other destinations contact us.
