Description

Le Creusot-Baccarat, Charles X period, impressive quality Large bowl on stand, in crystal, we see the bubbles and waves blowing in the material. Round star-cut base below, base and stem cut with flat ribs, corolla concentrically cut with a rosette of fine diamond points ending in the border with a succession of oval medallions with contrasting cut, sometimes plain, with magnifying effect, sometimes guilloche

Dimensions (27cm x 20cm). More than 3kilos.

Condition: good, no breakage, no flaw, well checked.

The cup rings like a bell.

Most certainly Baccarat, which around 1830/32 had just absorbed Les Cristalleries du Creusot, founded by Queen Marie Antoinette in 1787, and thus recovered the famous crystal cutters, the
