Description

An elegant classic desk from the Louis XVI period. It is supported by feet that narrow downwards, which gives it lightness. Veneered with noble wood species, among others. mahogany and rosewood. Decorated with intricate inlays with floral and geometric designs and a set of original bronze fittings based on the classic dictator of forms: a wreath-shaped lock and a rose-shaped drawer handle. After closing the shutter equipped with a lock, three drawers are blocked, but they also have a secret lock. In the upper part, a shutter closure is rarely used. Louis XVI, France, circa 1780 Height 105 cm (top 72 cm), width 78.5 cm, depth. 51cm. The condition is visible in the photos, it is good, and for its very good age, it is perfectly usable. The cost and delivery method to be agreed.
