Description

Japanese painting in fixed under glass representing a woman contemplating a landscape. The technique of fixed under glass is very complex to achieve since the painter paints his picture upside down, ie he begins with the foreground to finish painting the background. It gives us very fresh colors. Wooden frame. Period early twentieth. We have a second fixed under glass forming a pendant for sale in our gallery. Delivery 18 euros in France, 35 euros in the EU and 100 euros rest of the world
