Double Trinket In Silver Metal Decorated With A Warthog Tusk

200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'état

Description

This empty pocket is made up of two cups linked together by a silver metal frame adorned with a warthog tusk which serves as a socket. With a beautiful shape and a nice patina of use, this storage compartment will seduce you with its originality and its "multi-purpose" aspect. Thanks to the presence of the warthog tusk, it is well handled and will elegantly decorate your interior by combining the useful with the pleasant. Consider looking at the cigar cutter also adorned with a warthog tusk that I put on sale with which it would go perfectly !! Dimension: Length: 21 cm Width: 11, 5 cm (tusk) Diameter of each cut: 10 cm Good condition. He is old and has served. Some traces of oxidation on the metal, scratches from use on the underside; sold as is with its beautiful patina of time. Many other objects to
