Description

Small Louis XVI chest of drawers in light gray relaquered fruitwood dating from the very beginning of the 19th century. It opens with 3 drawers in 3 rows, attached gripping buttons. The feet are fitted with bronze hooves, a slight difference between the anterior and posterior ones. A beautiful white marble top tops this piece of furniture. The patina is old but not original. Some repairs (bottom of feet) and traces of wear and use. Delivery included for mainland France.
