Description

Persian Bidjar rug in wool from the Iranian highlands, hand knotted, 203 cm wide x 302 cm long, circa 1980 in very good condition, perfect limit. The shaving of these wool rugs is so precise and so clean that the material resembles silk giving the wool a beautiful shine. Not far from Sanandaj, the region of finely knotted Senneh rugs, is the small town of Bijar which, with its surrounding villages, produces what is arguably the heaviest and strongest rugs in Persia. "Heavy and thick, Bijar rugs are difficult to handle but sturdy for eternity." Our model has a classic medallion decoration also present on the Senneh, the field presents all in fresh and luminous nuances a so-called "herati" motif, discreet but very elaborate, the fine borders on the lengths are adorned with finely knotted palmettes.
