Description

The mirror that we are presenting is with fencing with an openwork pediment. It is carved and entirely gilded (period gilding). One of the bumper windows, the one on the left side in an impact, very complicated to change. This ice cream is from the beginning of the 18th century (Louis XVIII) so in my humble opinion you have to accept a little misery, it is already so magnificent that it arrives in such a state after having crossed the centuries.
