Description

Frederick Muvuma (1938) Gouache and oil on paper 57.5 x 36.3 cm - Framed 73 x 53.5 cm. A painter trained at the Elisabethville Academy of Fine Arts, founded by Laurent Moonens, Frederick Muvuma was born in Lubumbashi (DRC) in 1938. His work, imbued with boundless poetry, evokes the lost world of his childhood. Muvuma depicts a universe that seems to spring from his childhood dreams. Landscapes and wildlife intertwine, referencing a kind of lost Eden... Since 1964, he has exhibited his work in numerous exhibitions in Africa (South Africa, Zambia, Angola, Congo, etc.), France, Belgium, Germany, and the United States.
