

Greek Knitting Needle Tip Shape Of Woman Emerging From The Mouth Of A Fish -late 19th Fruitwo

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 25,5 cm

Description

Greek affiquet (knitting needle tip) with unusual decoration: a woman in an embroidered costume and nicely headdress emerging from the mouth of a fish; in fruit wood; late nineteenth early twentieth.

Good condition, beautiful original patina, tiny traces of use, in particular the trace of the knitting needle on the back of the woman.

Length: 25.5 cm

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps - Samuel Collin

Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity

Tel : 06 81 53 21 70

Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

Impasse des Ventes

Mézières-en-Drouais 28500