Description

Description Charming late 19th century ring crafted in 18k yellow gold, set with a pavé of antique rose-cut diamonds for an estimated total weight of approximately 0.60 carat. The elongated oval plaque--so characteristic of the period--offers a soft, subtle sparkle typical of rose-cut diamonds, with a refined presence on the hand. A beautiful piece of authentic antique jewellery, easy to wear every day and ideal for lovers of 19th century craftsmanship. Resizing and shipping are complimentary. Details
