Pair Of Stained Glass 1900

1 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'état

Description

Elegant late 19th century stained glass window forming two large Art Nouveau doors circa 1900 with naturalistic decoration in the taste of master glassmaker Charles Champigneulle presenting a cathedral glass structure with polychrome enamels set with lead depicting a lake landscape animated by large aquatic flowers and flowers. a moorhen close to its eggs located on the bank, the upper part is the motif of a flowery branch flown over by a bird. The set measures 1.30m high X 70cm wide / Each stained glass window: 1.30m high X 35cm wide. Note some gaps and cracks. no shipment envisaged, to be taken on site, thank you.

Dealer

Galerie Tramway

marchand d'art, gestion du patrimoine

Mobile : 06.65.52.05.40

D-751

Amboise 37400