Description

A charming Louis XVI terminal clock in gilded bronze with mercury and finely adorned Sèvres porcelain. The silk thread and ringing movement is in perfect working order. The dial, as well as the plates surrounding the terminal and its base are in painted porcelain with decorations of flowers and putti braiding garlands. The clock is surmounted by a Medici-shaped vase with the same decoration; It rests on claw feet in gilded bronze. L. 21 cm H. 37 cm P. 14 cm
