Description
-------------

Maîtres-Orfèvres: Marret-Jarry La bijouterie Joaillerie, la haute fantaisie 16, rue Vivienne in Paris Insculptations in 1853 and 1854. Rare and superb service in sterling silver, four pieces on their matching tray (the latter in silver metal) by the goldsmiths Marret-Jarry active in Paris, mid-19th century. With a beautiful circular shape, with a flat bottom, the body of each piece is surrounded at mid-height by imposing amatis nets on a plain base, thus isolating and highlighting all the ornamental details. These are made up of splendid geometric patterns, imposing friezes of Nasrid flowers and plant arabesques on a mat background. The lid is executed in the oriental style, the handles of the jugs finely enhanced with large geometric stripes. The whole is lightened by elegant, fine and sober pouring spouts, domed
