Description

Four-lobed in shape, old brooch made of gold and platinum threads on which are placed 12 fine pearls and an old brilliant-cut diamond in beaded bezel setting. The entire edge is set with alternating old brilliant-cut diamonds in a beaded bezel setting and rose-cut diamonds. The clasp is a metal pin with a safety hook. This clasp can be removed using a small gold screw.Period: 19th centuryMain material: platinum, mascaron punch.Proportions: Height: approx.4.5 cm, width: approx.4.5 cm.Net Weight: About 9.22g.Authentic old jewel - Work circa 1890s, Belle Epoque jewel.Our opinion: A lovely diamond and pearl brooch which was undoubtedly part of a more complete set. A small screw thread is always present on the back, it allowed to fix the old jewel on another support
